For a Permanent Position---

Telephone Operating While you have been engaged in turning out the things that made While you have been engaged in turning out the things that made fighting possible—while you have been serving in any one of the thousands of capacities in which women contributed so largely to the winning of the war—thousands of telephone operators. "Soldiers of the Switchboard," they have been called, have likewise been engaged in tasks that helped to bring about the Great Result.

But while your work is finished, the real work of the telephone operator continues. Her position is as vitally important today as it was during the active days of warfare, and she will need help in-carrying on her important duties during the costing period of reconstruction.

So to you bright, healthy, ambitious young women between is and 27, who appreciate the importance of serving the public in a hig way, we offer employment as telephone operators with good pay while you learn, increased pay at freuequt intervals after you learn, and a good desirable position always.

Telephone operating is an occupation in which the workers are promoted to executive positions and your advancement to one of these positions, therefore, is only dependent upon your willingness and ability.

We are interested in ALL young pendent upon your ability.

We are interested in ALL young women who possess the necessary qualifications and we would be pleased to have them call at our Application Office, Room 215, Ploneer Building, for particulars.
